

Message from Mr. Martinson

Everyone is saddened by the loss of our Queen. Today, we marked the occasion by teaching the children about her long service, talking about what will change and what happens next as we get a new King.

9/9/22 Queen Elizabeth II

We have completed our first week as part of the Northwick Park trust. You may have noticed a few skips and the school looking tidier as we work to refresh the look. Children are purposeful and this week, senior leaders looked across the schools in the trust at their learning environments. It is wonderful to see such vibrant and useful environments and this is reflected in the pace of the learning and the improved behaviour of the children.

We will be joined next week by the youngest children, as Reception join us from 9-11:30am every day. The learning in the Early Years is more formal and focussed than in previous years, so your child may come home much more tired than you expect.

Have a wonderful weekend
God Save The King!
